

Well, I tell you ! What a basketball team! What a basketball team ! The Bulls didn't have much time to enjoy it at last night's big one against the Cavaliers as David Robinson and the Spurs came to town. Let's go right to the highlights.

In end of the first half, the Spurs take a forty-fifty-five-lead. Ross Trickling to the big guy the Admiral down low for the dunk. But Michael Jordan 'explod' in the third quarter. Jordan with the steel narrows the break. Scotty Pithin and back to Jordan for the slam.

Then a little temper will explode. Tempers, boys, tempers ! Ross Trickling, Scotty Pithin, nobody's kicked out, just a double technical, just a little pushing and shoving at the old Chicago Stadium tonight. But Michael Jordan just kept playing basketball, off the steel, Pithin to Jordan, another dunk, the Bulls leading at that point seventy-seven-sixty-seven. They win it 102-96.

Elsewhere in the League Boston beat Philadelphia, Orlando beat Indiana, Milwaukee and New York at the half. In the first quarter, Phoenix leads Sacramento.

A huge upset at the Australia Open today. Mac may be back ! Unseemly John Mc Enroe upset Boris Becker in straight sets 6-4, 6-3, 7-5. It was the first time Mc Enroe had beaten Becker in seven years. Yesterday Mac said he would need a perfect game plus some luck to upset the big guy. Apparently he got both.

There's some good news from club shortstop Sean Dunston. Sean's injured back will not require surgery. I talked to Dunstan today from his hotel room. The club shortstop told me he had a bulge in his disc, it's not ruptured, so he should be released from the hospital tomorrow. That's good news for Sean Dunstan.

The NHL today suspended Black Hawk winger Stew Ransom for ten games for his part in the fight last night at the Stadium. After Steven Smith was hit in the face by Winnow Clarck, Ransom jumped off the bench. Coach Mike Keenan tried to hold him back. But watch too, he'll break away, he just couldn't control his temper, Stew Ransom gets away from Mike Keenan, and the fight is on ! Watch him throw a punch. He'll fall. This got ugly, folks. Throw the punch, this guy gets out of the way, 'cause this guy is a nut. This is ugly, the referee takes it in the face. But this is what some hockey fans like to see : a ugly situation. At the Chicago Stadium last night. Stew Ransom, out for ten games.

It's All-Star Friday Night in Philly tonight, the site of tomorrow's All-Star game. The great one Wayne Gretsky having fun with some kids before the All-Star Friday Night Competition. Black Hawks' Goldie Welford. Ed Bedford looks sharp in the Goal Tenders' contest. Watch Eddy the Eagle : he'll stop five shots of the six coming up. Ain't he looking real sharp ! One ! Two ! Eddy the Eagle, looking good. He can't play much with the Hawks lately, but he looks great here. Eddy the Eagle – looking sharp at All-Star Friday and that's it, sports.
